

Pipeline Surveying, Design and Consulting

Delivering experience, reliability and survey solutions to the Pipeline Industry

Veris are industry leaders in providing innovative consulting, project management, planning, design, survey and spatial solutions to the pipeline, oil and gas industries.

Veris are experts in all stages of development from concept, pre-feasibility, feasibility, FEED and construction, through to operations and maintenance.

Services include risk management (AS 2885), route selection and ground truthing, data sourcing and collation (heritage, environmental and land services), GIS/Web solutions, topography route and feature surveys, alignment sheets, cadastral surveys, easement creation, ROW/pipeline licensing, construction/facility surveys, as-built surveys, bending, stringing, special crossings and HDD design, 3D laser scanning, sub-surface service location, machine guidance, project CMS and data management.

With a proven track record in both the private and public sector, Veris combines national strength with local knowledge and expertise to ensure the best outcomes for all projects, regardless of size or geographical location.

Our Pipeline Surveying, Design and Consulting services include:

Our Pipeline Services include;

Route Selection Surveys

Feasibility Mapping and GIS

HDD and Crossing Design

Facility Survey and Scanning

Service and Asset Location

Alignment Sheets and Plans

Construction Survey Setout

Asbuilt Survey and Data management

Stringing and Bending Engineering

Cadastral Boundaries and Easements

UAV Imagery and Mapping

Our national team offers clients access to Australia's leading pipeline surveying talent, while providing personal service and local expertise.