

Property Surveying

Accuracy, reliability and data you can trust.

Veris has successfully delivered projects in all market sectors. We pride ourselves on providing an efficient land surveying service which provides value-for-money to our clients.

Clients choose to work with Veris because of our strong track record in creating partnerships in order to understand the specific expectations of each project. Additionally, our flexible, proactive approach ensures that clients' needs are always met. Our award-winning team will guide you through the various options and deliverables and advise on the best approach to meet the quality, accuracy, time and cost goals of your project.

Our access to the latest technology enables us to provide our clients with a competitive advantage. We can deliver an effective project through a team of proactive, mobile, fully equipped professionals who are the best in their field.

Our Property Surveying services include:

Subdivision – Greenfield

Subdivision – Built form

Lease Area Surveys

Audit Surveys

Feature Surveys

Volumetric Surveys

As-Built Surveys

Boundary Re-establishment

Veris is a preferred service provider for national land developers, civil & building contractors, engineers, architects, private clients as well as local government planning departments. Veris is able to offer a proactive team with strong local knowledge that will allow clients' projects to develop with confidence.